1. JAMES PELHAM<sup>2</sup> HAMILTON (JAMES PELHAM<sup>1</sup>) was born 1849 in Hobart, Tasmania, and died 08 Mar 1893 in Drown at Crookwell River, Binda. He married CAROLINE WEAVERS 16 Jun 1877 in St.James C/E Binda, daughter of THOMAS WEAVERS and MARY BROWNLOW. She was born 09 Aug 1853 in Crooked Corner, and died 01 May 1904 in Lost River NSW.

Death by Drowning
Crookwell Gazette
Wednesday 8th March 1893

Mr. James Hamilton of Lost River was drowned in the Crookwell NSW River Saturday night last. Deceased had been working for Mr. Henry Carr, somewhere beyond Binda and was on his way home on horseback. He called at Binda where he was last seen by Mr. W. Rolfe. Next morning he was found washed up against a tree, by, we believe Mr. Webster, about ¼ mile below where the Crookwell NSW River crosses the Wheeo Binda Road. An inquiry was held by Mr. E. A. Webster yesterday and Mr. S. L. Cox, when a verdict of accidental drowning was returned. Deceased was about 40 years of age and leaves a wife and six children in very distressed circumstances. (He was actually 48 years of age)

Flood at Crookwell NSW-

A Man Drowned

Telegrams from Crookwell NSW report rough weather. On Saturday a thunderstorm, which was usually severe commenced about four o'clock and within two hours two inches of rain fell flooding the low-lying portions of the town. Rogers' store and several private homes were inundated. The river rose a banker and carried away fences, culverts, and one bridge. Heavy rain fell on Saturday night and Sunday with the thunder storms. The total official register was 540 points. The police report having found the body of a man named James Hamilton washed up into a willow tree, three miles from Binda, in the Crookwell River. The deceased left the Binda Royal Hotel about twelve o'clock on Saturday night for Lost River where he resided on a selection. On Sunday morning Mr. A Webster found his horse in a paddock and made a search along the river without result. He then went for the police and they found the body half a mile below the crossing, a magisterial inquiry was held yesterday and a verdict of accidental drowning was returned. Hamilton, who was 40 years old, leaves a widow and six children totally unprovided for.

CAVILL, Mrs. P (Caroline)

Argyle Liberal, Tuesday 3.5.1904

SUDDEN DEATH It is with regret that we record the death of Mrs. Peter Cavill, which took place at her residence off the Wheeo road, about six miles from Crookwell NSW, on Sunday afternoon last. It appears that deceased suffered from bleeding at the throat, and was attended for this complaint by Dr Pawlett some two months ago. Deceased recovered from the attack, and was up and about in her usual health to the day of her death, in fact she assisted in cooking the family dinner on Sunday. Shortly before dinner time on Sunday a severe attack of bleeding at the throat and nose took place, and all efforts to stop the bleeding were to no avail, death taking place some two hours after its commencement, and before medical assistance could be procured. Deceased was 52 years of age, and had resided in this district all her life, being highly respected by all who were acquainted with her. We beg to extend our sympathy to the bereaved family in their sad and sudden loss. SUDDEN DEATH A sudden death occurred at Lost River on Sunday afternoon last, the victim being Mrs. Cavill, wife of Mr. P. Cavill, of that part. She had been ailing for some time past and was under medical treatment, but on Sunday afternoon appeared no worse than usual. However, she was suddenly attacked in the afternoon and succumbed within two hours. An inquest was dispensed with.

CHARGES AGAINST A TEACHER. The trial of William James Davidson, on a charge of having on January 20th. and March 7th, at Cullen's Creek, criminally assaulted Mary Ann Hamilton, his pupil, was concluded, at the Criminal Court on Thursday afternoon. After the address of counsel and his Honor Mr. Justice Simpson's. summing up, the jury, at ten minutes to 1 o'clock, retired to consider their verdict. At 20 minutes past two o'clock they returned into court with a verdict of guilty on both counts, with a recommendation to mercy on account of the prisoner's previous good character. He was remanded for sentence.

Queanbeyan Age- Saturday 20 April 1895

Serious Charge against a Teacher. At the Goulburn Circuit Court on Tuesday, William James Davidson, a young man under 30 years of age, was charged with that he did on the 4th January, he being then a schoolmaster, unlawfully and carnally know a pupil named Mary Ann Hamilton, aged 14 years and 2 months, at Curran's Creek, near Crookwell. He was further charged with having committed a second offence on the same pupil on 7th March. The circumstances surrounding the alleged offences have already been made public. His Honor Mr. Justice Innes, reviewing the evidence at length, directed the jury that it was for them to determine whether they believed prisoner's statement to be true in the face of the evidence given by the girl and supported in every particular by that of Mrs. Parker. He commended Mr. Harvey's action in reporting the man to the inspector. The jury retired at 10.15 At 11.30 his Honor had the jury recalled into court, and as the foreman stated there was no probability of their agreeing, they were locked up for the night. On Wednesday morning, the jury having been locked up for twelve hours, and not being likely to agree, they were discharged. They are said to have been equally divided, six for conviction and six for acquittal. The case was remanded to next assizes on 7th October, or such other court as the Attorney-General might direct. The Crown prosecutor said he would consent to bail, prisoner in £100 and two sureties in £50 each.

CLAIMS FOR MAINTENANCE.

Ellen Elizabeth Gimbert made application under the Testator's Family Maintenance for an order for maintenance from the estate of her mother, Ellen Grills, late of Rock Abbey, Arundel. Applicant stated that she was 72 years of age, the widow of a railway employee. She had an old-age pension. Her son, who was injured on military service and lived with her, had a pension of £1/10/ per week. Mrs. Grills, who died at the age of 95 years, left an estate of £22,033. The principal beneficiary of her will was West Maitland Grills, a son, to whom she left such of her grazing property as had not previously been conveyed to him. To certain other members of her family testatrix left the residue of her estate. To the applicant she left a legacy of £ 100.

An order was made that the applicant should be paid an annuity of £3 a week for life half the burden to be borne by West Maitland Grills, and half by the residuary estate of the testatrix. It was also ordered that the legacy of £100 to the applicant be increased to £200. Applicant's costs to be paid out of the estate as between party and party costs of the executors as between solicitor and client also out of the estate, other costs to be borne by the parties.

Mr. Dudley Williams (Instructed by Messrs. Reid and Reid, of Newcastle, through their Sydney agents, Messrs. Lobban and Lobban and Harney) appeared for the applicant; Mr. E W. Wickham (instructed by Messrs. Weaver and Gentle, of Armidale, through their Sydney agents, Messrs Paton and Pye) for one of the executors; Mr. J. R. Hooton (Instructed by Messrs. McKenzie and Biddulph, of Guyra, through their Sydney agents, Messrs. Biddulph and Salenger) for West

Maitland Grills and certain respondents; Mr. McLelland (instructed by Messrs. R. C. Cathels and Jones) for another respondent.

GREGORY STEPHEN GEORGE:
Attempted murder charge

A Yass woman, who pleaded guilty to attempted murder, was placed on a three-year good behavior bond, when she appeared in the Yass District Court on Monday.

Elsie Jean McCracken, 45, of Fife-Shire, Yass, was charged with attempting to discharge a firearm with intent to murder her defacto husband, Gregory Stephen George. The Crown said the offence took place near the Yass River on August 3, last year. The case was heard by His Honor Judge Matthews. The Crown said McCracken took George from the Yass Hospital where he was being treated for alcoholism, on the pretence of taking him to an optometrist. Instead she drove to the Yass River and produced a shotgun and attempted to shoot him. However, the gun failed to fire and after a fight he reported her to the Yass police.
