JOHN JOSEPH SHARWOOD

Was a native of London, employed as a errand boy, he was arrested for stealing from Elizabeth Reading. At his trial he was found guilty for street stealing at the age of 16 years he was sentenced to life, at the Old Bailey at Middlesex on the 6 December 1827 and transported on the "Phoenix 2" which arrived in Sydney, NSW 13 July 1828. He was described as being 6ft 4ins with a ruddy to fair complexion and grey eyes. He must had had some education as he was able to read and write. On the 1828 Census, he had a tattoo IS and a anchor on his right arm and a tattoo of heart and darts on his left arm, by then he had a swelling under his left jaw and a scar on his right jaw, a scar between his eyebrows and a ring on two fingers of each hand. He was assigned to Mrs. Reynolds a shopkeeper in George Street, Sydney, in 1828 Census.

On later muster he was with MacArthur at Goulburn, when he had received his ticket of leave, he was granted his conditional pardon on 31 October 1843, he moved into the Crookwell NSW area and was granted a publicans licence of the 'The Travellers Rest and Crossing Place' at Abercrombie River Parents: William Sharwood and Dinah Rudden. John was born in London England

John and Henrietta Sharwood settled in these wooded hills and valleys in the mid to late 19th century. They were married at Bolong in 1878 and were blessed with eleven children. John's father, John William Sharwood, had been transported from England and arrived in Australia on 13 July 1828. He obtained a Royal Free Pardon, on 7 Oct 1854. He was given a Publican's Licence for the Travellers Rest at The Crossing Place, Abercrombie River.

John W married the "Widow Francis", Catherine Berrell, in 1854. They had four children, John being the eldest. Unfortunately Catherine died in 1859 at The Crossing Place.

John W re-married in 1861. Charlotte Loisa Booth and he produced another six children.

The Homestead "HADLEY" is the fourth dwelling of the family of the "young" John Sharwood. . . Remnants of the third dwelling can be seen adjacent to our Shearers' Quarters. The second was at a higher elevation just west of "Bimbadeen" to our south west; the first was across the River to the north on "Blue Hills". Remnants of the Inn are on the river flat at The Crossing Place (which is now closed to road traffic). Henrietta and her bachelor son, Hollis, nicknamed "Shar", were living in the house up until the 50s with Max and his wife Beatrice (nee Howard) and family.

Death Notice - Goulburn Herald Wed 3.2.1892

Laggan Influenza and death. This scourge of humanity has not entirely left our district yet. Now and again we hear of persons of families afflicted with the complaint. Mrs Sherwood, the wife of Mr S B Sherwood of Laggan, became afflicted with this malady about a fortnight ago. Every effort was made and attention bestowed to help the sufferer, but, unfortunately it appeared to some from the first that there was little hope of the patient's recovery. She became gradually weaker, and at last succumbed to the fatal disease on Friday last, about five o'clock in the evening. She has left a young family of six children, the youngest being only three months old. Much sympathy is felt for her husband and motherless children as was evidenced by the great number of relatives, friends and acquaintances that followed the funeral to the Bolong church on Sunday last when the remains of a faithful wife and a loving mother were laid to rest.

Obituary Crookwell NSW Gazette, Wed 3.2.1892 -

We regret having to record the death, on Friday last, after an illness of about 10 days with influenza, of Mrs Samuel Sharwood of Laggan. Deceased was a daughter of Mrs Allport of Bolong, and was about 40 years of age. She leaves a husband and six children, the youngest about three months old

Crookwell NSW Gazette, Tuesday 18.5. 1909

OBITUARY

Mr W J Allport, of Fullerton, died at his residence on Friday last as the result of an accident which befell him on the Wednesday night previously. On the night in question, Mr Allport was returning home from Crookwell NSW and the night being dark, he got off the road, with the result that he was capsized out of his vehicle, and rendered unconscious. Dr Conroy was sent for, but despite all that medical aid could do, death ensued on Friday. Deceased had not long been discharged from Crookwell NSW hospital, where he was confined for several weeks with a broken leg, the result of an accident. Deceased was in his 39th year. KEVIN HAROLD SMITH:

The Crookwell NSW Gazette Friday April 7, 1972
FORMER CROOKWELL MAN KILLED IN HEAD-ON COLLISION

A young married man from Binalong and formerly of Crookwell NSW, was fatally injured on Thursday night when his vehicle was involved in a head-on collision with a Yass taxi on the Binalong Road. He was Kevin Smith, aged 34 years, of Grogan Street, Binalong.

The accident happened about two miles from the turnoff from the Hume Highway. Mr. Smith car was involved in a collision with a taxi driven by Mr. Des. Lachlan of Yass. It is believed that death was instantaneous, following the shocking impact between the two cars. Mr. Smith and his family were on their way to Sydney, NSW to attend the Easter Show. Mrs. Norma Smith was admitted to hospital suffering from severe and extensive facial injuries and deep shock. Her daughters, Margaret who is 15 and Nerida, 11, were both treated for shock and bruises. Mr. Lachlan suffered a fractured leg and was admitted to Yass Hospital. His condition is now reported to be satisfactory. Mrs. George Turton, a passenger in the taxi, is in a satisfactory condition in Canberra Hospital, after suffering severe shock, extensive bruising and lacerations. Mrs. Turton lives near Bowning. Mr. Smith was one of Binalong's best-known and most highly respected citizens. Kevin Smith was a "big" man and his ambitions and his achievements matched his physique. He was foremost a devoted family man with two daughters, Margaret and Nerida. With his wife Norma, Kevin conducted a sound and reliable transport business. He was a good friend and a co-operative citizen of the community. Local organisations on which he served as a committeeman, P. and C. Swimming Club, Golf Club and the Progress Association as well as his many friends, mourn his passing and pay tribute to the contributions he made to their progress.

GENEROUS MAN

Kevin's unassuming and self affacing manner cloaked a quiet sense of humour and a generous disposition. Many people in many districts have been the beneficiaries of his selfless consideration. If proof of the esteem and affection in which he was held were needed, it was shown in the number of people who travelled long distances to attend his funeral, which was one of the largest ever, in Binalong. Kevin's childhood and youthful days were spent in Crookwell NSW and before moving to Binalong six years ago, he ran a Tyre service in Yass. As well as his wife and two daughters, he is survived by his parents and one brother. One acquaintance described Kevin Smith this way: "He was a gentleman and a man, Now his pilgrimage is over, he will be remembered for what he said, and did and was." A man with an effervescent personality, both he and his wife were noted for their participation in community affairs in Binalong. Mrs. Smith was allowed out of hospital to attend the funeral of her husband, held at St. Thomas' Church of England, Binalong on Tuesday, but had to return to hospital immediately after the service. The funeral was one of the biggest held in Binalong for many years.

CROOKWELL GAZETTE Wednesday June 16, 1976

Boy, 9, died aftercrash on Millsvale Road

A nine -year-old boy was killed and a youth seriously hurt in separate road accidents in the Crookwell NSW area over the holiday weekend.

The dead boy was Anthony John Smith son of Mr and Mrs Athol Smith, of "Rosemont" Fullerton.

Anthony was the passenger in a car being driven by a juvenile on the Millsvale Road at about 11.30 on Monday morning.

The car apparently hit a rock on the road, went out of control and struck a tree. Anthony was brought to Crookwell NSW by Ambulance, and then rushed immediately to the Goulburn Base Hospital. He died at about seven o'clock on Monday night. Const. Peter Benes, of Tuena Police, is handling inquiries. No date has yet been set for an inquest. The funeral service was held this afternoon at St. John's Church, Bolong, with interment in the Bolong Cemetery.

Crookwell NSW Man Dies in Excavator Accident

Police are conducting enquiries into the death of a Crookwell NSW man who became trapped in the cabin of an excavator which plunged into a creek at Kangaroo Valley, in the state's south.

About midday Friday August 3, the 46-year-old Crookwell NSW man was conducting excavation work in Barrengarry Creek, near Grahams Road, when part of the gravel creek bed gave away.

The excavator tipped onto its left side, plunging the cabin into deep water.

Attempts by the man's workmates and NSW Ambulance personnel to free him were unsuccessful.

Another excavator was used to bring the crippled machine to the surface and it was then confirmed the man was deceased. Police from Shoalhaven Local Area Command, Forensic Services Group and the Rescue Squad attended the scene. Investigations into the accident are continuing.

Police will prepare a report about the man's death for the information of the NSW Coroner.
